Chamber has 75 travelers go to China Monday

Chamber members travel agency Citilinc, has 75 people from this area traveling to China. The group will fly out of LAX on Oct. 13 at 1:40 a.m. arriving in Beijing, China. The group will spend seven days enjoying a variety of tours scheduled. They will experience visiting a jade factory, and the Great Wall of China, the Ming Tombs, a pearl market, and then head to Shanghai and Suzhou, where the group will have an opportunity to hear traditional Chinese music, visit a silk factory and more. They will then travel to Hangzhou for a boat cruise, experiencing the centuries old Lingyin Temple, the 64-foot high camphor-wood Buddha, and the Longjing Green Tea Factory. Returning to Shanghai the group will tour a silk rug factory, enjoy the beautiful Yu Garden with mazes, and have time to explore the old town bazaar. The group will also meet up with former residents JJ and Janice Fletcher. Their flight will depart Shanghai to LAX on Oct. 21, arriving at Los Angeles International Airport around 6 p.m. Special thanks to local residents who are traveling on this trip and to Jack Camper, CEO of the Tucson Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce who presented the program to our board of directors for approval. Bon Voyage!
