

Recent Valley promotions and hires

Oct. 24, 2008 02:55 PM

Board members

American Bar Association President Tommy Wells Jr. appointed Allen Kimbrough, executive director of the Maricopa County Bar Association, to a three-year term on the ABA's Standing Committee on Public Education.

Diane D'Angelo, outreach coordinator at the Arizona Department of Veterans' Services, has been appointed vice chair of Phoenix's Human Relations Commission.

Education

Estrella Mountain Community College has hired Brachelle Broom as its new manager of employee services.

Finance

U.S. Bank Home Mortgage in Arizona continues to expand its home-mortgage team by hiring two sales professionals. Ryan Rippy and Chuck Davis have joined the team as loan officers.

Government

First Things First announced that Sandy Junck Carpenter has been chosen to serve as government-affairs specialist.

Law

Lewis and Roca LLP announced that 10 associates have joined the Phoenix office. They are Brooktynn Blood, Joseph Brophy, Nathaniel Edwards, Matthew Engle, Michael Hammer, Naomi Jorgensen, Myles Morrison, Travis Pacheco, Sarah Selzer and Travis Wheeler.

Real estate

Lisa Schuh and Cathy Obermiller recently joined Lincoln Property Co.'s west region as senior property managers.

Gilbane Building Co. named Amanda Elliott marketing and public-relations manager of its Arizona-Nevada region.

Technology

Integra Telecom Inc. promoted Rob Smith from vice president of customer care for Oregon to senior vice president of Integra Telecom of Arizona.

Miscellaneous

Tim McCarthy was hired as vice president of franchise development for Honest-1 Auto Care, an auto-repair and maintenance company headquartered in Scottsdale.

Send information to marcia.gaysue@arizonarepublic.com.