Artistry Unveiled Showcases EMCC Student Art and Performance March 24, 2009

Estrella Mountain Community College will host "Artistry Unveiled," a new take on the college's annual Arts Extravaganza, on Wednesday, April 8, 2009 from 6-8 p.m. in the college's Community Room, 3000 N. Dysart Road, in Avondale.

The event, free and open to the public, will showcase the artistic, musical and performance talents of the Estrella Mountain student body. Featuring a glow-in-the-dark fashion show, hosted by the college's Fashion Club; an open mic; music and dance performances; and student artwork from the college's art and photography classes; the event will encompass a variety of disciplines and subject matter that celebrates the learning experience of the students on the EMCC campus. A silent art auction will also take place during the event to raise funds for student scholarships.

The event is student-organized and is an opportunity for students to showcase their work. Jose Rios, president of the EMCC Fashion Club said, "This event is crucial to the learning experience for students that are heading in the direction of the fashion industry or other artistic avenues. Events such as these allow students to acquire an education that they would not be able to experience otherwise."

For more information, please contact Christina Izaguirre, Student Life, at 623-935-8802.

EMCC, at Thomas and Dysart roads in Avondale, offers transfer-ready academic courses and job-specific occupational training to approximately 13,000 students annually. Estrella Mountain is part of the Maricopa County Community College District, one of the largest community college districts in the nation.
