Gunshot kills man inside home

GLENDALE - A gunshot into a home Saturday left one man dead.

The shooting happened around 4:30 a.m. in the 6700 block of 54th Drive. Police said someone from outside the home fired a shot into the residence, killing Julian Amarillas, 36.

Police are seeking any witnesses.

Arts show is set for Estrella

AVONDALE - Estrella Mountain Community College's Arts Extravaganza will showcase students in "Artistry Unveiled" on April 8.

Highlights include a glow-in-the-dark fashion show, an open mike, dance performances and work done by the college's art and photography classes. A silent art auction will help raise funds for student scholarships.

The show runs from 6 to 8 p.m. in the campus's Community Room, 3000 N. Dysart Road.

Help sought in foiling burglars

PEORIA - The Peoria Police Department is asking for residents' help in catching burglars in January and February break-ins.

Thirteen burglaries were reported in the area from 67th to 83rd avenues from Cactus to Thunderbird roads, and 20 burglaries were reported from 91st to 107th avenues from Peoria to Northern avenues.

Police urge residents to call 623-773-7099 if they see suspicious behavior in their neighborhood.

Event celebrates female artists

WICKEBURG - "Art From the Other Half of the West," a celebration of female artists of the American West, opened this weekend and runs through May 3 at Desert Caballeros Western Museum, 21 N. Frontier St.
