College fitness center reopens

A grand reopening for Estrella Mountain Community College's Fitness Center will be from 9 a.m.-noon Sept. 18. The college is at Thomas and Dysart roads, Avondale.

The activities will include group exercise classes and booths exploring the programs, including Zumba, boot camp, yoga, Pilates and martial arts. The Goodyear Fire Department will provide car seat safety checks.

The remodeled center has unveiled "Reshaping Fitness," a new approach to fitness with new membership structures available to the community, students, faculty and staff.

Free group exercise classes also will be offered from 4 to 9 p.m. Thursday.

Details: 623-935-8405 or estrellamountain.edu.

'Teen Zine' seeks submissions

Teens interested in submitting short stories, photographs, poems and other creative works for publication in Maricopa County Library District's "Teen Zine" have until Sept. 20.

"Teen Zine" showcases the best of teen art and creative writing from all library district libraries. Entries can be mailed to Maricopa County Library District, 2700 N. Central Ave., Suite 700, Phoenix, AZ 85004, or submitted online.

Participants must be 12 to 18 and may submit up to three creative works.

The 2010 "Teen Zine" will be published and circulated in district libraries and other county government offices by December. Entries selected to appear in the magazine also will appear on the library district's
