EcoAvenues at Estrella Mountain Community College in Avondale

Disney dancers, an EcoCraft area, face painting, Wildlife World Zoo animals, Pedal-a-Watt bikes (bikes that generate electricity), a bounce house and a bike rodeo were highlights of Arizona Public Service Co.'s inaugural EcoAvenues on Saturday at Estrella Mountain in Avondale.

It provided information and resources to help people live a more sustainable life and heighten their awareness of green jobs, products and programs.

Proceeds benefit a Sustainability supporting sustainability education at EMCC.
