Excellence in education and the community will be celebrated this month when Estrella Mountain Community College (EMCC), Glendale Community College (GCC), and the Maricopa Community Colleges Foundation (MCCF) present the fourth annual Awards for Excellence.

Honorees include Outstanding Alumni Cuauhtémoc “Memo” Espinoza, and Outstanding Student Advocate Jason Martinez. Jason Martinez has been working for the Maricopa Community College District since 1991, where he has served in counseling, career development, advisement, assessment, recruitment/retention, multicultural training and student affairs.

The awards gala, which raises funds for scholarships and programs at both West Valley community colleges, will be held at the Wigwam Golf Resort and Spa in Litchfield Park.
