Friday, July 08, 2011

West Valley cities and towns have joined forces to help their residents find employment.

LaidOffCamp SW Valley focuses on helping people find work, whether it be full time, freelance, volunteer or something entirely new, officials said.

Seminars and workshops with topics and information designed to help jobseekers take the next step toward defining and achieving their goals is planned for the Aug. 13 event.

LaidOffCamp SW Valley is an extension of a national effort to help people find work.

LaidOffCamp is a locally based, community-supported event offering resources and reassurance to job seekers, officials said.

The free event is from 7:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Aug. 13 at Estrella Mountain Community College, 3000 N. Dysart Road in Avondale.

Event attendance is limited; registration is required.

For information, visit www.laidoffcampswvalley.com or register online at <http://laidoffcampswvalley.eventbrite.com>.

LaidOffCamp SW Valley is made possible by volunteers from the cities of Goodyear, Avondale, Litchfield Park and Tolleson; and Southwest Valley and Buckeye Valley chambers of commerce.
