Rachel Trott joins View staff as reporter

Rachel Trott, 22, joined the staff of the West Valley View as a writer Dec. 27.

While in college, she worked as a summer intern for the View in 2010 and 2011.

Trott grew up in Denver's south metro area, and graduated from Littleton High School in May 2008.

She graduated from Colorado State University in December 2011 with a bachelor's degree in journalism.

Trott and her husband, a senior airman at Luke Air Force Base, live in Goodyear with their dog, Bagel.

Trott will be covering the city of Avondale, Estrella Mountain Community College, religion and various school districts for the View.

La Loma Care Center gets new director of nursing

Nancy Wilson recently joined the La Loma Care Center in Litchfield Park as director of nursing.

Wilson relocated from Flagstaff where she lived for many years and most recently worked as the director of nursing at The Peaks. She received her bachelor's degree in nursing from Northern Arizona University. Wilson has more than 33 years experience, which includes an extensive background in nursing leadership functioning as a multi-departmental liaison and resource for both nursing and ancillary staff, interdisciplinary team processes, policy and procedure development and program development. She also has extensive experience in evaluating processes, community education and staff empowerment to development.

La Loma Care Center is a two-story facility on the northwest corner of Camelback and Litchfield roads that offers living with assistance, skilled nursing services and a variety of short-stay rehabilitation and home transition programs.
