students in an art venue, providing a unique and educational event revolving around recycling," said McAuley.

The Recycled Art Show will have an exhibit of multimedia art pieces for viewing and purchase, created by the many artists of WHAM Art Association. The event begins with appetizers created by the culinary students of Estrella Mountain College.

The fashion design students will present a live fashion show with clothing made from recycled objects. Professional harpist Clara H. Arnold will provide music.

Tickets can be purchased at the door for $15, or go to the WHAM Community Art Center, Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to buy tickets. Seating is limited.

Along with the admission ticket, each participant will receive a raffle ticket to participate in a drawing for a recycled art piece. All proceeds benefit WHAM Art Association and the Community Art Center to keep providing the arts to the West Valley.

For information, contact Corinne McAuley at corinnemcauleyfineart@msn.com or 623-214-7778.

Staff report
WHAM presents the Recycled Art Show and Fundraiser at WHAM Community Art Center, 16560 N. Dysart Road, from 1 to 4 p.m. Saturday.

The event will feature the Estrella Mountain Community College fashion and culinary arts students, as well as local artists promoting their individual talents.

Corinne McAuley, WHAM's vice president, along with many WHAM volunteers designed this afternoon for the public to see "what's happen'n" in the local arts world.

"This show is to showcase the many talents of our community and involve the college

I'm a new member of WHAM and just want to say, this is a little jewel on the west side providing free help to some kids who are just interested in art, supportive creative art sessions to alzheimers patients and their caregivers and currently - this lovely afternoon focused on recycling. What's not to like??

There's a wonderful feeling in this group. Potters, painters, mixed media, for all ages and stages, a terrific community. Come visit, and let's keep developing this community together.
